

North Carolina pursuant to document from John Thomas Esq. Location of location North of Jekylls Cove. Proposed and laid out into sections Ripens tract of land containing one thousand acres Jekylls in granville county in the late purchase made from the British Indians on a branch of great River bounded on the one side by land of John Adkins and on the other side by vacant land and has set off four hundred and one acres as the above plot represents Surveyed this 17th day November 1794 Robert Prince Esq

