

(c) That the interest of the defendant in the aforementioned property be attached and sold by the Court pursuant to the attachment statutes of the State of South Carolina for satisfaction of such judgments. If upon the sale of such property it brings more than the amount of the judgments, plaintiff prays that any remaining sums, after paying for the costs and expenses of this proceeding, be held by the Court for the use and benefit of the plaintiff and her children for the payment of alimony and child support in the future, as required by the Order of this Court;

(d) And for such other and further relief as to the Court seems just and proper.
