Personally appeared before me James Cooley, who on oath says:

That Linda J. Acker is justly and truly indebted to the Plaintiff in the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars or the value of the property herein described ($) Dollars, and that Plaintiff is entitled to an attachment against Linda J. Acker and the real estate described on the reverse side hereof, upon the grounds: that the Defendant, Linda J. Acker, is not a reside of this State, being in fact a resident of the State of Texas, that said Defendant has contracted with the Plaintiff to sell Plaintiff the real estate herein described, and now fails and refuses to comply with said contract, and Plaintiff has filed an action for the specific performance thereof.
