

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA) IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS COUNTY OF GREENVILLE)
 David D. Armstrong, ) Plaintiff, )
 vs. ) AFFIDAVIT
 First Hartford Realty ) Corporation, ) Defendant. )

PERSONALLY appeared before me David D. Armstrong who on oath says: That First Hartford Realty Corporation is justly and duly indebted to David D. Armstrong, Attorney at Law, in the sum of Eleven Thousand Eight Hundred Nineteen and 70/100ths Dollars ($11,819.70) and that he is entitled to an attachment against the property of First Hartford Realty Corporation upon the grounds that the captioned case is an action for the recovery of money under the Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, §15-19-10, as amended and that the Defendant is a foreign corporation having been incorporated in the State of Delaware with its principal place of business in the State of Connecticut.

Affiant further states that beginning in late 1974 the Plaintiff represented the Plaintiff corporation and its various subsidiary corporations as corporate attorney within Greenville County, South Carolina, under the direction and control of the officers, counsel and management of First Hartford Realty Corporation and that there was an agreement wherein the Plaintiff would represent the Defendant and its subsidiary organizations on an hourly basis and as of date there is still an outstanding balance due in the amount of Eleven Thousand Eight Hundred Nineteen and 70/100ths Dollars ($11,819.70).

That further, upon information and belief, pursuant to Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, §15-19-10, et seq., as amended, affiant believes himself entitled to attachment of certain properties located within Greenville County, South Carolina.

 DAVID D. ARMSTRONG, AFFIANT
