AFFIDAVIT

Personally appeared before me Julius B. Aiken, who on oath says:

That the personal defendant, Donald DelleDonne, is justly and truly indebted to him in the sum of One Thousand Eight Hundred Eighteen and 75/100 ($ 1,818.75 Dollars and that he is entitled to an attachment against the personal defendant's real property interest in Lot No. 10, Rosemary Lane, Rosedale Subdivision upon the grounds that the personal defendant is the owner of a 1/2, undivided interest in said real property, is a non-resident, and owes a past-due debt to plaintiff for legal services rendered and has failed and refused to pay for same, notwithstanding demand pursuant to Section 15-19-10 of the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina.

BOND

We Julius B. Aiken, Principal, and Julius B. Aiken, Jr.

Surety, acknowledge ourselves bound unto the defendant in the sum of Two Hundred Fifty ($250.00) dollars, subject to the following conditions: That the Plaintiff is seeking an attachment against the defendant which is now about to be sued out, returnable to the Court above named; Now if the plaintiff shall pay all damages that the defendant may sustain, and also all costs that may be incurred by him in consequence of the suing out such attachment, in the event, that the plaintiff shall fail to recover in said case, then this bond to be void.

Done this 24th day of August, 19 82.
