C.A. No. 84-CP-23-187C

Rudy Allen Gary,) Defendant.)

This day appeared before me the Plaintiff, represented by its attorney, seeking an attachment of certain property of the Defendant, for the reasons recited in the June 8, 1984 affidavit of Thomas W. Styron and in the Complaint.

A hearing was conducted ex parte for the reason that this Court has determined that the Defendant has assigned or disposed of or is about to assign or dispose of certain of his property with intent to defraud the Greenville County Museum of Art.

I have reviewed the Summons and Complaint filed in this action, the June 8, 1984 Affidavit of Thomas W. Styron and the Bond of the Greenville County Museum of Art and find that all are in full compliance with the requirements of Sections 15-19-10 through 15-19-110 of the 1976 Code of Laws of South Carolina, as amended, relating to attachments.

I further find that this is an appropriate case for attachment for the reason that the action is for the recovery of money and/or for the recovery of property or damages for the wrongful
