 CLERK S. TAYLOR
 S.C. J.C.

Personally appeared before me, Henry Hulseberg, who being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he is an officer of Morris Construction Company, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under and pursuant to the laws of the State of South Carolina with its principal place of business in Greenville, South Carolina.

The petitioner, Morris Construction Company, Inc. (Morris) did contract with the respondent, Tell Properties, I., (Tell) to furnish labor and materials required to construct and make improvements on certain properties described more fully herein as East Point Shopping Center, Greenville, South Carolina, as is more fully set out in the contract which is attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A. Certain work was performed and payments on the contracted amount were made with a balance due and owing on said contract. The materials supplied and labor performed under the above-referenced contract were furnished with the authorization and agreement of the parties on premises which real property is more fully described as follows:
