IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

G. Yvonne McClain,
Plaintiff,
vs.
Robert Lee Cox,
Defendant.

87-CP-23-
AFFIDAVIT

PERSONALLY APPEARED BEFORE ME, G. Yvonne McClain, who being duly sworn, deposes and states that she is the Plaintiff in the action styled as G. Yvonne McClain, Plaintiff vs. Robert Lee Cox, Defendant. That she has read the allegations set forth in the Complaint entitled as indicated, dated <sup>Nov.</sup> ~~October~~ 12th, 1987; that the allegations contained in the Complaint are true; that the Defendant is justly and truly obligated to the Plaintiff for personal injuries sustained as alleged in the Complaint in the sum of Fifty Thousand and 00/100 ($50,000.00) Dollars; that Plaintiff is entitled to an attachment against the Defendant upon the grounds that the Defendant has told her that he has no intention to pay for any of the injuries caused to her; that he has cursed her and told her that under no circumstances would he ever pay her, and that as soon as he obtains any funds from his mother's estate that he is going to take all of the funds and leave the State and that she is never going to get of any of his property. That upon information and belief, said representations made to Plaintiff by the Defendant
