And should the Mortgagee, by reason of any such insurance against loss as aforesaid, receive any sum or sums of money for any damage to the said building or buildings, such amount may be retained and applied by it toward payment of the amount hereby secured; or the same may be paid over, either wholly or in part, to the said Mortgagor, his successors, heirs or assigns, to enable such parties to repair said buildings or to erect new buildings in their place, or for any other purpose or object satisfactory to the Mortgagee, without affecting the lein of this mortgage for the full amount secured thereby before such damage, or such payment over, took place.

And it is further covenanted and agreed that in the event of the passage, after the date of this mortgage, of any law deducting any lien thereon from the value of land, for the purpose of taxation, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages or debts secured by mortgage, or the manner of the collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the said Mortgagee, without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.
