- (8) To keep the property insured as required by and under insurance policies approved by, delivered to, and retained by the Government.
- (9) To maintain improvements in good repair and make repairs required by the Government, operate the property in a good and husbandmanlike manner, comply with such farm conservation practices and farm and home management plans as the Government from time to time may prescribe; and not to abandon the property, or cause or permit waste, lessening or impairment of the security covered hereby, or, without the written consent of the Government, cut, remove, or lease any timber, gravel, oil, gas, coal, or other minerals except as may be necessary for ordinary domestic purposes.
- (10) To comply with all laws, ordinances, and regulations affecting the property.
- (11) To pay or reimburse the Government for expenses reasonably necessary or incidental to the protection of the lien and priority hereof and to the enforcement of or the compliance with the provisions herein and of the note and any supplementary agreement (whether before or after default), including but not limited to costs of evidence of title to any survey of the property, costs of recording this and other instruments, attorneys' fees, trustees' fees, court costs, and expenses of advertising, selling, and conveying the property.

- (15) If at any time it shall appear to the Government that Borrower may be able to obtain a loan from a production credit association, a Federal land bank, or other responsible cooperative or private credit source, at reasonable rates and terms for similar purposes and periods of time, Borrower will, upon the Government's request, apply for and negotiate such loan and, if successful, pay the note and any indebtedness secured hereby and to pay for any such necessary, to be disbursed to a cooperative lending agency in connection with such loan.
- (16) Default hereunder shall constitute default under any other real estate, or other, security instrument held or insured by the Government and executed or assumed by Borrower, and default under any such other security instrument shall constitute default hereunder.
- (17) SHOULD DEFAULT occur in the performance or discharge of any obligation secured by this instrument, or should any one of the parties named as Borrower die or be declared an incompetent, bankrupt, or insolvent, or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors, the Government at its option, with or without notice, may (a) declare the entire amount unpaid under the note and any indebtedness to the Government hereby secured immediately due and payable, (b) fix the amount of Borrower's due and payable liability for repair or maintenance of and take possession of, operate or rent the property, (c) upon application by and prior to the date of this instrument, without notice of hearing of said application, have a receiver appointed for the property, with the usual powers of receivers in like cases, (d) foreclose this instrument as provided herein or by law, and (e) enforce any and all other rights and remedies provided herein or by present or future law.

At foreclosure or other sale of all or a part of the property, the Government and its agents may bid and purchase as a stranger and pay the Government's share of the purchase price, retaining such amount in any debts of Borrower owing to the Government, in the order preceding above.
- (19) Borrower recognizes that, pursuant to Federal law, the Government will not be bound by any provision in future State laws, (a) providing for valuation, appraisal, homestead or exemption of the property, (b) prohibiting maintenance of an action for a deficiency judgment or limiting the amount thereof or the time within which such action may be brought, (c) prohibiting any other statute of limitations, (d) allowing any right of redemption or possession following any foreclosure sale, or (e) limiting the conditions which the Government may by regulation impose, including the interest rate of non-chARGE, as a condition of approving a transfer of the property to a new Borrower. Borrower expressly waives the benefit of any such State laws.
- (20) If any part of the loan for which this instrument is given shall be used to finance the purchase, erection and/or repair of projects to be used as an intercropped fueling berms, (a.k.a. "fuel berms") and if Borrower fails to sell or resell the fueling and has obtained the Government's consent to do so, he or she will never be entitled to do so for sum, will, after receipt of a bona fide offer, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of the fuel berm in question to those who may wish to buy the fueling berm because of race, color, religion or national origin, and (b) Borrower acknowledges and agrees that it is his intent with this note to attempt to enforce anti-discriminatory covenants in the fueling berm, and to do so in accordance with the law.
