The Mortgagor further covenants and agrees as fol

(1) That this mortgage shall secure the Mortgagee for such further sums as may be advanced hereafter, at the option of the Mortgagee. for the payment of trees, insurance promiums, public assistments, repairs or other purposes pursuant to the conscious because this conveyer shall also so one the Mortgagee for any further loans, advances, readvances or credits that may be made hereafter to the Mortgagor by the Mortgague so long as the total indebness thus secured does not exceed the original amount shown on the face hereaf. All sums so advanced shall bear interest at the same rate as the mortgage debt and shall be payable on demand of the Mortgague unless otherwise provided in writing.

Constitution of the consti

(3) That it will keep all improvements now cuisting or bereafter creeted in good repair, and, in the case of a construction foan, that it will continue construction until completion without interruption, and should it fail to do so, the Mortgagee may, at its option, enter upon said premises, make whatever repairs are necessary, including the completion of any construction work underway, and charge the expenses for such repairs or the completion of such construction to the mortgage debt.

(4) That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines or other impositions against the mortgaged premises. That it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the mortgaged premises.

(5) That it hereby assigns all rents, issues and profits of the mortgaged premises from and after any default hereunder, and agrees that, should legal proceedings be instituted pursuant to this instrument, any judge having jurisdiction may, at Chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the mortgaged premises and collect the reuts, issues and profits, including a reasonable rental to be fixed by the Court in the event said premises are occupied by the mortgager and after deducting all charges and expenses attending such proceeding and the execution of its trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the rents, issues and profits toward the payment of the debt secured hereby.

(5) That if there is a default in any of the terms, conditions, or covenants of this mortgage, or of the note secured hereby, then, at the option of the Morigagee, all sums then owing by the Morigagor to the Morigage shall become immediately due and payable, and this morigage may be foreclosed. Should any legal proceedings be instituted for the foreclosure of this morigage, or should the Morigagee become a party of any suit involving this Morigage or the title to the premises described herein, or should the debt secured hereby or any part thereof he placed in the hands of any attorney at law for collection by suit or collections, all costs and expenses incurred by the Morigogee, and a reasonable attorney's fee, shall thereupon become due and payable immediately or on demand, at the option of the Morigogee, as a part of the debt secured hereby, and may be reconvered and collected hereunder.

(7) That the Mortgagor sholl hold and enjoy the premises above conveyed until there is a default under this mortgage or in the note secured hereby. It is the true meaning of this instrument that if the Mortgagor shall fully perform all the terms, conditions, and convenants of the mortgage, and of the note secured hereby, that then this mortgage shall be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.
