

insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, dissolution, arrangement, composition, readjustment of debt or other similar act or law of any jurisdiction, now or hereafter existing; or the appointment of a receiver, custodian or trustee of the Corporation or for all or a substantial part of its property or the issuance of a warrant of attachment, execution or restraint, or similar process against any substantial part of the property of the Corporation; and which in each such case such condition shall continue for a period of 60 days undismissed, undischarged or unbonded.

The provisions of subsection (e) of this Section 9.01 are subject to the following limitations: if by reason of acts of God; strikes, lockouts or other industrial disturbances; acts of public enemies; orders of any kind of the Government of the United States or of the State or any department, agency, political subdivision or official of either of them or any civil or military authority; insurrections; riots; epidemics; landslides; lightning; earthquakes; fires; hurricanes; tornadoes, blizzards, or other storms; breakage or accident to machinery; partial or entire failure of utilities; or any cause or event not reasonably within the control of the Corporation, the Corporation is unable in whole or in part to carry out its agreements herein contained, other than the obligations on the part of the Corporation contained in Section 4.01 hereof, the Corporation shall not be deemed in default during the continuance of such inability. The Corporation agrees, however, to use its best efforts to remedy with all reasonable dispatch the cause or causes preventing it from carrying out its agreements; provided, that the settlement of strikes, lockouts and other industrial disturbances shall be entirely within the discretion of the Corporation, and the Corporation shall not be required to make settlement of strikes, lockouts and other industrial disturbances by acceding to the demands of the opposing party or parties when such course is in the judgment of the Corporation unfavorable to the Corporation. The occurrence of any of the events described in paragraphs (a), (b), (c), (d), (f), (g), (h) and (i) of this Section 9.01 shall constitute an Event of Default regardless of the reason for such failure to perform.

SECTION 9.02. Remedies. Whenever any Event of Default referred to in Section 9.01 hereof shall have happened and be subsisting, any one or more of the following remedial steps may be taken; provided that, no remedial steps shall be taken by the Issuer or the Lender hereunder the effect of which would be to entitle the Issuer to funds necessary for the payment of principal and interest on the unpaid balance of the Note unless at the time of such
