Personally appeared before me Zodia Simmons who being duly sworn says that she is about thirty-seven years of age and lives at No. 5, Bruce Street, Greenville, S. C. That she is the daughter of Milton Simmons, who was the son of Emma Simmons, late of Greenville County, S. C. That deponents mother Queen Simmons died when deponent was small, and thereafter deponent went to live with her grandmother Emma Simmons. That Emma Simmons told deponent that Emma Simmons was the daughter of Randall Moore and that Gabriel Moore was the brother of Emma Simmons; That Randall Moore gave Gabriel Moore some land and also gave Emma Simmons a tract of $3\frac{1}{4}$ acres; that she never heard Emma Simmons speak of owning any other land except this tract.

Personally appeared Robert Simmons, who being duly sworn says that he is 38 years of age and lives at 202 Cook Street, Greenville, S. C. That he is a son of Zodie Simmons and the grandson of Emma Simmons (who was a daughter of Randall Moore, and who the second time married Butler Bates). That he lived with his grandmother Emma Simmons from his infancy. That as far back as he can remember she owned and worked a tract of $3\frac{1}{4}$ acres of land in Butler Township, Greenville County, S. C. adjoining lands of Warren Webster and Mrs. Lindsey Walker. That said Emma Simmons told deponent many a time that said tract of land was given her by her father Randall Moore. That Randall Moore, deponent's great grandfather, died before deponent was born. Deponent tended this $3\frac{1}{4}$ acres tract of land for his grandmother from his childhood.
