SEPARATION AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, the undersigned E. C. Shepherd and Grace Headen Shepherd were married on October 25, 1941 and have lived together continuously since as husband and wife until approximately two weeks ago at which time the undersigned separated and are now living separate and apart, and in order to fix and determine their respective rights, duties and obligations each to the other have entered into an agreement which agreement is hereby produced to writing, ratified and confirmed, said agreement being as follows:

For the consideration hereinafter expressed the said E. C. Shepherd does hereby forever release and discharge the said Grace Headen Shepherd from any and all duty to him by reason of their marital relationship, including the duty of living with him as wife and supplying to him the usual duties customarily performed, furnished and afforded by a wife.

In and for the consideration above expressed the said Grace Headen Shepherd does hereby forever release and discharge the said E. C. Shepherd from any and all duty to her by reason of their marital relationship including the duty of living with her and of furnishing and supplying to her support and maintenance and any and all duties customarily due or performed by a husband.

It is understood and agreed that on and after this date each of the undersigned shall be at liberty to keep company with such friends as they may desire without objection, interference or molestation from each other.

It is further understood and agreed that the automobile stands in the name of and is in the possession of the said E. C. Shepherd shall remain his sole and separate property, likewise the furniture now in possession of the said E. C. Shepherd shall remain his sole and separate property.

It is further understood and agreed that in the event either of the parties hereto desire a divorce the other party will not offer any objection thereto, but on the contrary will accept service of any petition or application for divorce and will waive any question as to the jurisdiction of the court in any state in which said application may be made to grant said decree of divorce.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, We have hereunto set our hands and seals at Greenville, S. C., this 18 day of July, 1942.
