

Throughout this instrument the words "my property," "my estate" and "any property" are intended to include all property whether real, personal or mixed, and all interests therein.

And I hereby declare that any act or thing lawfully done hereunder by my said attorney shall be binding upon myself, and my heirs, legal and personal representatives, and assigns whether the same shall have been done before or after my death, or other revocation of this instrument, unless and until reliable intelligence or notice thereof shall have been received by my said attorney; and whether or not I, the grantor of this instrument, shall have been reported or listed, either officially or otherwise, as "missing in action" as that phrase is used in military parlance, it being the intendment hereof that such status designation shall not bar my attorney from fully and completely exercising and continuing to exercise any and all powers and rights herein granted, and that such report of "missing in action" shall neither constitute or be interpreted as constituting notice of my death nor operate to revoke this instrument.

In the event my said Attorney shall die, refuse, or otherwise be unable or fail to act hereunder, I then do hereby appoint of my true and lawful attorney from and immediately after the happening of any such event to act in and manage all my estate, affairs, and property in the same manner and with the same powers and authorities as if the name of said had throughout these presents been inserted instead of the name of said

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 25th day of March, 1954.
