

own name and/or in the name of the Landlord, to contest any such laws, rules, orders, ordinances or regulations which Tenant shall, in good faith, desire to contest, and further agrees to execute such instruments, and give Tenant such assistance in connection with such contest as shall be necessary, reasonable and proper, all at the sole expense of the Tenant.

REPAIRS. The Tenant agrees and covenants that he will keep the building and the premises, outside and inside, in good substantial repair, and will deliver said building and premises (unless the lease be terminated because of condemnation or other proceeding as provided in the paragraph hereof entitled "Condemnation"), at the termination of this lease, in good order and repair, due allowance being made for obsolescence and reasonable wear and tear.

DAMAGE CLAUSE. Should the whole or any part of the improvements at any time standing on the demised premises be partially damaged or wholly destroyed by fire or other cause after the commencement of the term of this lease, such destruction or injury shall not operate to terminate this lease, but this lease shall continue in full force and effect, and Tenant agrees at his own expense without unnecessary delay, to restore or rebuild said improvements to a condition equal or greater in value to that just prior to said loss.

INSURANCE. Tenant shall, during the entire term hereof, keep the demised premises, including all improvements, alterations, additions and changes in and to the demised premises made by Tenant, insured against loss or damage by fire and causes covered by the customary standard extended coverage applicable to property of similar character located in Greenville, South Carolina, in an amount equivalent to eighty per cent (80%) of the insurable value.

All proceeds of such insurance in case of loss or damage shall be used toward the full compliance with the obligation of Tenant assumed under the above paragraph captioned "Damage Clause" to the extent that such proceeds are required for such purpose, and any balance of such proceeds shall be released to the Tenant.
