

The purpose therefore of this deed is to convey to R.C. Collins any interest I may have in and to the tract of land first above described and to particularly set forth by metes and bounds, courses and distances, that portion of the property which was retained by me out of the tract acquired under the deed from Betty Scott referred to above.