COUNTY OF GREENVILLE. |

FILED
GREENVILLE CO. S. C.
NOV 14 2 09 PM 1962
OLLIE T. HARRIS
R. M. C.

WHEREAS, heretofore under date of June 20, 1962, Alice Louise Cagle, and J. W. Cagle and wife, Frances S. Cagle, executed assignments unto Henry Mounger and Ernest R. Duff, both of Columbia, Marion County, Mississippi, of an undivided three one-hundredths (3/100) interest in and to all of the net income to be derived from rent, lease, sale, trade or exchange of certain properties owned by them and situated in the City of Greenville, South Carolina, more particularly described therein; and

WHEREAS, the consideration for said assignments was the performance by the said Henry Mounger and Ernest R. Duff of legal services for the said assignors in connection therewith, which said services were to be performed in the future; and

WHEREAS, said assignments were, therefore, in the nature of a retainer fee to the said Henry Mounger and Ernest R. Duff for services to be so performed; and

WHEREAS, one of the assignees, Henry Mounger, departed this life on October 14, 1962, and left as his sole and only heirs-at-law his widow, Mrs. Annie Louise W. Mounger, and his daughter, Mrs. Annie Louise M. Dabbs, both adults; and

WHEREAS, said heirs-at-law of the said Henry Mounger, deceased, do now desire to transfer and assign unto the said Ernest R. Duff all of the interest owned by the said Henry Mounger by virtue of the said assignments from Alice Louise Cagle and J. W. Cagle and his wife, Mrs. Frances S. Cagle, as set out hereinabove:

NOW, THEREFORE, KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That for and in consideration of the premises and the further consideration of the sum of Ten Dollars ($10.00) cash this
