POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS that I, the undersigned Volona P. Gray have and by these presents, do appoint W. B. Parsons _____ as my true and lawful attorney to do, and in my place and stead, as if done by me personally, the following:

1. To receive, endorse and collect checks payable to my order, and to give full discharge for the same; 2. To receive, endorse, negotiate, transfer and otherwise act in my behalf in the management of any and all choses and action, including any security instruments, or certificates evidencing ownership of any stock or bond, bill of exchange, note or other negotiable or transferable paper and to vote, in my name and stead, and on my behalf, either personally or by proxy any stock which I may own; 3. To sign and deliver checks, drafts, and other orders for the payment of money upon any checking or savings account which I may have in any institution and to settle and adjust my accounts with any such institution; 4. To otherwise act in my place and stead as my attorney-in-fact in managing and prosecuting any business or financial affairs of any kind and nature, as fully and effectively as if personally done by me.

The power and authority herein granted shall continue until and unless expressly revoked by me in writing, or until my death, whichever shall first occur.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 24th day of March, 1970.

In the presence of:

Charlotta M. Miller

Volona P. Gray

Elizabeth Smith
