

(6) This trust shall continue until such time as all of the Trust Property, whether received initially or subsequently, is sold; but in no event shall it continue beyond twenty (20) years after the death of the last survivor among the Cestui Que Trust.

(7) This Agreement and the trust created herein may be amended in any respect whatsoever and/or revoked in whole or in part upon consent of the owners of at least fifty-seven and 16/100 percent (57.16%) of the beneficial interests of the trust by a duly executed instrument delivered to the Trustees. Upon any such revocation, the Trustees shall transfer and convey to the Cestui Que Trust all property then in their hands in respect of which the trust has been revoked. No amendment shall be made to this agreement which shall in any way increase the obligations of the Trustees hereunder or change their rights or duties without their consent.

(8) After the payment of all indebtedness and expenses of maintaining the property and administering the trust, any remaining income shall be distributed by the Trustees among the Cestui Que Trust in accordance with the beneficial interests of each.

(9) In case it shall be expected that for any reason a Trustee will be unable to perform his duties in that capacity for a period exceeding thirty (30) days, a successor Trustee may be appointed by instrument in writing signed by the owners of at least fifty-seven and 16/100 percent (57.16%) of the beneficial interests of the Trust Property. If no such notice be given and appointment made, a remaining Trustee may continue to act alone. In the event both Trustees become incapacitated and such action is not taken within sixty (60) days following the incapacity of the Trustees, then a successor Trustee or Trustees may be appointed by the Resident or Presiding Judge of the Greenville County Court of Common Pleas upon application of any Cestui Que Trust hereunder, or upon application of any predecessor Trustee or his personal representative.

(10) Upon the death of any of the Cestui Que Trust, or upon written notice of any of the Cestui Que Trust to the Trustees of his intent or desire to sell his interest in the Trust Property and/or terminate the trust, the remaining Cestui Que Trust shall have the option to purchase the interest of the deceased or withdrawing Cestui Que Trust proportionate to the then-existing interest of each of the remaining Cestui Que Trust at a
