

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
 COUNTY OF RICHLAND

CERTIFICATION

I, Betty J. Cooper, Secretary for the Executive Director of Parks, Recreation and Tourism did, on Monday, December 17, 1973, deposit in the United States mail ballots to the below listed members of the South Carolina Tourism Committee to obtain their advice on the recommendation of the South Carolina Parks, Recreation and Tourism Commission that the former Tricentennial Piedmont Center on Roper Mountain in Greenville County, State of South Carolina, be deeded to the School District of Greenville County, for use as an environmental science center. Ballots were mailed to each and every member of the Committee and those members are:

Senator James P. Stevens
 Senator Paul M. Moore
 Senator Frank L. Roddey
 Representative Julius H. Baggett
 Representative Charles E. Hodges
 Representative Joseph R. Riley, Jr.
 Mr. Lloyd B. Bell
 Mr. C. Lem Harper
 Mr. Hugh Lanier

Said ballots were to be returned to Senator James P. Stevens, Chairman of the South Carolina Tourism Committee.

 Betty J. Cooper

SWORN to before me this
5th day of February, 1974.

 Notary Public for South Carolina (LS)

My Commission Expires: 12-3-79

(CONTINUED ON NEXT PAGE)