

(9) No Trustee shall be responsible or personally liable except by a wilful breach of trust and any Trustee only for his own acts.

(10) The death or incapacity of a Grantor, or any Successor, shall not terminate this Trust, nor entitle his legal representative to take any action in court for a partition or winding up of the Trust, nor otherwise affect the rights, duties, obligations, and liabilities of the parties hereto. The Grantors agree not to bring a partition action to receive their interest in this Trust.

(11) This Agreement shall be binding upon the parties hereto, their successors, executors, administrators, heirs, and assigns. Words used herein in one gender shall be construed to include all genders.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunder set their hands and seals and caused these presents to be duly executed the day and year first above written.
