

The above two tracts are a portion of that property conveyed to J. Rowley Henderson by deed of W. P. Chiles and H. W. Chiles, dated November 19, 1909, and recorded that same date in Greenville County Deed Book 5 at Page 694. Thereafter, J. Rowley Henderson died testate at Greenville County, South Carolina, on November 14, 1952, reference being made to Greenville County Probate file designated Apartment 615 at File 38, leaving a life estate in his wife, Kitty Arnold Henderson, with a remainder interest to his children, Roy L. Henderson, James R. Henderson, Harry L. Henderson, W. Lua Henderson and Kathryn H. Griffin. Thereafter, said Kitty Arnold Henderson died intestate at Greenville County, South Carolina, in January, 1961, leaving her children above-named as her sole heirs at law. Roy L. Henderson thereafter died at Greenville County, South Carolina, on November 26, 1971, reference being made to Greenville County Probate File designated Apartment 1207 at File 21, leaving as his sole heir at law his wife, Jennie S. Henderson, said Roy L. Henderson having died testate.

The Grantors specifically convey by way of quit-claim, all their right, title and interest, if any, in and to the roadbed and right-of-way of those roads shown on said plat, known as Fork Shoals Road and White Horse Road Extension.

This conveyance is subject to all restrictions, setback lines, roadways, zoning ordinances, easements and rights of way, if any, affecting the above described property.
