

6/14/78

VOL 1007 PAGE 621

participating therein not less than sixty (60) days notice of its intent to withdraw therefrom; provided, however, that the withdrawing party and, if only two parties are participating in said such joint policy, the remaining party, on or before the effective date of such withdrawal, shall acquire and maintain a policy of comprehensive public liability insurance in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.02 hereof.

Section 6.07. Self Insurance. Any party hereto may carry any insurance required to be maintained under this Article VI, either in whole or in part, under a "blanket policy" which covers other properties of such party provided that said policy otherwise complies with the requirements of this Article VI. Any party hereto which has a net worth of more than $40,000,000 or has the performance of its obligations hereunder guaranteed by a corporation which has such a net worth may carry any insurance required to be maintained under this Article VI, either in whole or in part, under any plan of self-insurance which such party may have in effect. The party which elects to self-insure pursuant to this Section 6.07 shall demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the other parties that the net worth requirements under this Section 6.07 are met and, that it is maintaining adequate reserves for such purposes; and so long as such party continues to self-insure, demonstrate, on an annual basis, that said net worth requirements and reserves are maintained. As used in this Section 6.07, the term "net worth" shall mean the stockholder's or shareholder's equity of such party, as determined in accordance with sound accounting principles.

4328 IV-2