share of profit or loss of each partner for income tax purposes shall be prepared by a firm of certified public accountants designated by approval of all partners. Such statements shall be distributed to all of the partners within a reasonable time after the close of each calendar year.

(12) Voluntary Termination. The partnership may be dissolved at any time by agreement of all partners, in which event the partners shall proceed with reasonable promptness to liquidate the business of the partnership and distribute its assets in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 17.

(13) Admission of New Partners. No partner shall assign or sell his or its interest in the partnership to any person or entity without the written consent of all other partners. Additional partners may be admitted to the partnership with the written unanimous consent of all the partners. In the event that new partners are admitted into the partnership, the share of each new partner and all other partners in ownership, profits and losses, and the obligations of the partners shall be such proportions as may be agreed upon by all of the partners.

(14) Death, Dissolution, or Bankruptcy of a Partner. The death, dissolution, or bankruptcy of a partner shall cause the dissolution of the partnership, if there is only one surviving partner, and the surviving partner (if there is only one) shall proceed with reasonable promptness to liquidate the business of the partnership and distribute the partnership assets as provided in Paragraph 17, except that there shall be no liquidation if the surviving partner elects to purchase the decedent's partnership interest in the same manner provided where there is more than one surviving partner. (See below).

(b) In the event there is more than one surviving partner, then, if the surviving partners (or one or more of them) elects to purchase the decedent's entire partnership interest, they shall give notice in writing of such election to the decedent's executor or administrator,
