

B. No business shall be allowed upon the condominium property, nor any use of practice which is the source of annoyance to residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents. All parts of the property shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate nor any fire hazard allowed to exist.

C. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the condominium property, nor any part thereof; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be observed.

D. Entire residences may be rented (the term "rent" shall include lease or sublease). No unit owner may lease less than the entire unit. Any lease agreement shall be required to provide that the terms of the lease shall be subject in all respects to the provisions of the Declaration and the By-Laws and that any failure by the Lessee to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default under the lease. All leases shall be required to be in writing. Other than the foregoing, there is no restriction on the right of any unit owner to lease his unit.

E. Reasonable regulations concerning the use and occupancy of the condominium (including residences and common areas) and reasonable regulations concerning the prohibition of or limitations on pets may be made and amended from time to time by the Board of Directors. Copies of such regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished by the Manager or Board of Directors to all the residence owners and residents of the condominium upon request, and each residence owner, his Lessee and persons living with the residence owner or his Lessee shall comply with such regulations and with the condominium documents.
