

SECTION FOUR
BREACH BY PURCHASER; REMEDIES OF SELLER

Time is of the essence of this contract. In the event Purchaser fails to make any payment required by the terms of this contract, at the time the same falls due and prior to delinquency thereof, including installment payments to Seller, payments on taxes, assessments and insurance premiums and if such default continues for FORTY-FIVE (45) days after written notice thereof, Seller at her option may:

(1) Declare a forfeiture of Purchaser's rights hereunder and cancellation of this contract, subject to any rights of redemption or reinstatement which the Purchaser may have under the laws of this State. On such election all right, title and interest of Purchaser hereunder shall cease and determine, and all payments theretofore made by Purchaser shall be retained by Seller as liquidated damages.

(2) In lieu of declaring a forfeiture, accelerate and bring an action for the balance of the purchase price remaining due, or for any other relief available in law or equity, including suit to recover any payment or payments made by Seller and repayable by Purchaser hereunder, it being stipulated and agreed that such obligation to repay is a separate and independent covenant of Purchaser hereunder. No action to recover any payment or payments so made by Seller shall constitute waiver by Seller of her right to proceed otherwise with respect to any subsequent default. No waiver by Seller of any default of purchaser shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default. Reasonable attorney's fees will be paid by Purchaser in the event of default.
