B. A. Heilhouse
to
James G. Hawthorne

Assignment

State of South Carolina
County of Greenville Whereas the late firm of Heilhouse and Bacon composed of the undersigned Benjamin A. Heilhouse and Arthur W. Bacon is indebted to divers persons, and whereas the individual members of the said firm are largely indebted, either as principals or sureties, far beyond their present ability to pay, and whereas the said Arthur W. Bacon, one of the members of said firm, voluntarily withdrew from the management of the business, and departed this State, thereby casting the entire responsibility of the said firm upon his remainder partner the said Benjamin A. Heilhouse, and whereas the said Benjamin A. Heilhouse, after several months experience, is satisfied that the business cannot be longer conducted to the benefit and advantage either of the members of the said firm or the creditors thereof, and desiring to secure all creditors, whether firm or individual, from any detriment or loss so far as it may be within his power, he now therefore know all men by these presents, that the undersigned Benjamin A. Heilhouse for and in consideration of the above premises, and the sum of one dollar to him in hand paid by James G. Hawthorne, at and before the sealing and delivering of these presents, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, has bargained, sold, assigned, transferred and set over, and by these presents does bargain, sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the said James G. Hawthorne, his executors, administrators and assigns, all of the Drugs, medicines, stock-in-trade, notes, books of accounts, choses in action and other property of and belonging to the said firm of Heilhouse and Bacon now in his power, custody and full control, the same to be more fully and particularly enumerated and described by an inventory thereof to be hereunto annexed so soon as stock of the same can be taken, to have and to hold the same to and for the following uses and purposes;

1. To take possession of all of the property above mentioned, and to sell and dispose of the same, with all reasonable diligence, either at public or private sale, at and for the best prices that can be obtained therefor, and also
