

insured from loss or damage by fire and assigned the policy of insurance to the said mortgagor; and that in the event that the mortgagor shall at any time fail to do so, then the said mortgagor may cause the same to be insured in our name and reimburse himself for the premium and expense of such insurance under this mortgage, with interest.

And if at any time any part of said debt, or interest thereon, be past due and unpaid we hereby assign the rents and profits of the above described premises to said mortgagee or his heirs, Executors, Administrators, or assigns, and agree that any Judge of the Circuit court of said State may, at chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver, with authority to take possession of said premises and collect said rents and profits, applying the net proceeds thereof (after paying costs of collection) upon said debt, interest, costs or expenses; without liability to account for anything more than the rents and the profits, actually collected.

Provided always, nevertheless, and it is the true intent and meaning of the parties to these presents, that if we the said mortgagors do and shall well and truly pay, or cause to be paid unto the said mortgagee the debt or sum of money aforesaid, with interest thereon, if any be due, according to the true intent and meaning of the said note, then this deed of trust and sale shall cease, determine, and be utterly null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and virtue.

And it is agreed by and between the said parties that said mortgagors are to hold and enjoy the said premises until default of payment shall be made.

Witness our hands and seals this twenty-sixth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-five and in the one hundred and fifty-second year of the Independence of the United States of America.
