- (b) the rental charged for each unit, which will include all utilities, except gas, will be equal to 25% of the tenant's income or the basic rental, whichever is greater, but in no event shall the rental charged exceed the fair market rental.
- (c) they shall limit admission to the project to those families whose incomes exceed the limits presented by the Commissioner, with the exception of those tenants who exceed by just the fair rental.
- (d) preference for occupancy shall be given to those families displaced from an other rental area, or as a result of governmental action, or as a result of a disaster determined by the President to be a major disaster, and to those families whose incomes are within the lowest practicable limits for obtaining rental units in the project.
- (e) on forms approved by the Commissioner, they will affix to each lease, five tenant, prior to admission to the project, a certification of income and a certificate that they are not paying fair market rental of interests as required by the Commissioner.
- (f) if any recent increase reveals a change in income whereby the tenant becomes eligible for a lower or higher rental, such adjustment in rental charged shall be made, provided that rental shall never be less than basic rental and shall never exceed fair market rental.
- (g) at a hearing presided over by the Commissioner, there will be an affidavit, substantiating the information given on the tenants' certificates and certifications of income and shall be in the evidence in their files for three years.
- (h) they shall require all tenants who do not pay the fair market rental to execute a lease in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, and shall not accept any unit in the project for less than 20 days and more than one year.
- Beginning with the term of the interest reduction payment contract, the Owners shall furnish the Commissioner, not later than the tenth day of each month the amount by which the total rentals collected on the dwelling units exceeds the sum of the approved basic rentals for all occupied units, which statement shall be accompanied by an annual report to be approved by the Commissioner, provided that a monthly report must be filed even if no rent increase is required.
- (i) they shall not restrict occupancy because of the fact that there are children in the family, except in those projects that are designed primarily for elderly persons.
- (j) they will rent commercial facilities, if any, at not less than the rental approved by the Commissioner.
- (k) no charge will be made on the basic rental or fair market rental unless approved by the Commissioner.
- (l) no tenant shall be permitted to rent more than one unit at any given time without the prior written approval of the Commissioner.
- (m) if these restrictions apply to any unit in the project, the restrictions as to the maximum amounts for admissioin to such units and the conditions of tenancy and agency shall be in accordance with the Rent Supplement Contract executed by the Owners and the Commissioner, which is incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement.
5. Upon prior written approval of the Commissioner, the Owners may, subject to and receive from any tenant such amounts as from time to time may be lawfully agreed upon between the tenant and the Owners for any facilities and/or services which may be furnished by the Owners to such tenant upon his request, in addition to the facilities and services included in the approved Rental Schedule.
6. Owners shall not without the prior written approval of the Commissioner:
- (a) Convey, transfer, or encumber any of the mortgaged property, or permit the conveyance, transfer or encumbrance of such property;
 - (b) Assign, transfer, dispose of, or incur any personal property of the project, including rents, or pay out any funds, other than from surplus cash, except for reasonable operating expenses and necessary repairs;
 - (c) Convey, assign, or transfer any beneficial interest in any trust holding title to the mortgaged property, or the interest of any general partner in a partnership owning the mortgaged property, or any right to manage or receive the rents and profits from the mortgaged property;
 - (d) Remedel, add to, reconstruct or demolish any part of the mortgaged property, or subtract from any real or personal property of the project;
 - (e) Make, or receive and retain, any distribution of assets of any kind of any kind of the project, except from surplus cash and except on the following conditions:
- (1) All distributions shall be made only as of or after the end of a semiannual or annual fiscal period, and only as permitted by the law of the applicable jurisdiction; all such distributions in any one fiscal year shall be limited to six per cent, on the initial equity investment, as determined by the Commissioner, and the right to such distribution shall be cumulative.
