

3. That it will keep all improvements now existing or hereafter erected in good repair, and, in the case of a construction, that it will cause such construction to be completed without interruption, and should it fail to do so, the Mortgagee may, at its option, enter upon said premises, make whatever repairs are necessary, including the completion of any construction work underway, and charge the cost thereof to the Mortgagee.

4. That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines, penalties, or assessments against the mortgaged premises. That it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the mortgaged premises.

5. That it hereby assigns all rents, issues and profits of the mortgaged premises from and after any default herein, and, in the event any legal proceedings be instituted pursuant to this instrument, any judge having jurisdiction may, at Chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the mortgaged premises and collect the rents, issues and profits, and a reasonable rental to be fixed by the Court in the event said premises are occupied by the mortgagor, and after deducting therefrom the costs of attending such proceedings and the execution of its trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the rents, issues and profits to the payment of the debt secured hereby.

6. That if there is a default in any of the terms, conditions, or covenants of this mortgage, or of the note secured hereby, then, at the option of the Mortgagee, all sums then owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee shall become immediately due and payable, and this mortgage may be foreclosed. Should any legal proceedings be instituted for the foreclosure of this mortgage, or should the Mortgagee become a party to any suit involving this Mortgage or the title to the premises described herein, or should the debt secured hereby or any part thereof be placed in the hands of any attorney at law for collection by suit or otherwise, all costs and expenses incurred by the Mortgagee, and a reasonable attorney's fee, shall thereupon become due and payable immediately or on demand, at the option of the Mortgagee, as a part of the debt secured hereby, and may be recovered in and out of this mortgage.

7. That the Mortgagee shall hold and enjoy the premises above conveyed until there is a default under this mortgage, or until the terms and conditions of this instrument shall be fully performed, and the Mortgagee shall fully perform all the terms, conditions, and covenants of the mortgage and of the note secured hereby, that then this mortgage shall be entirely null and void, otherwise to remain in full force and effect.

8. That the covenants herein contained shall bind, and the benefits and advantages shall inure to, the respective heirs, assigns, administrators, executors and assigns of the parties herein. Whenever used, the singular shall include the plural, the plural the singular, and the use of any gender shall be applicable to all genders.
