(3) That it will keep all improvements now existing or hereafter erected in good repair, and, in the case of a construction loan, that it will continue construction until completion without interruption, and should it fail to do so, the Mortgagee may, at its option, enter upon said premises, make whatever repairs are necessary, and charge the expenses for such repairs or the completion of such construction to the mortgage debt.

(4) That it will pay, when due, all taxes, public assessments, and other governmental or municipal charges, fines or other impositions against the mortgaged premises. That it will comply with all governmental and municipal laws and regulations affecting the mortgaged premises.

(5) That it hereby assigns all rents, issues and profits of the mortgaged premises from and after any default hereunder, and agrees that, should legal proceedings be instituted pursuant to this instrument, any judge having jurisdiction may, at Chambers or otherwise, appoint a receiver of the mortgaged premises, with full authority to take possession of the mortgaged premises and collect the rents, issues, and profits, including a reasonable rental to be fixed by the Court in the event said premises are occupied by the mortgagor and after deducting all charges and expenses attending such proceedings and the execution of its trust as receiver, shall apply the residue of the rents, issues and profits toward the payment of the debt secured hereby.

(6) Mortgagor shall be in default if it fails to pay any installment of principal or interest within thirty (30) days after due date, or if Mortgagor fails to comply with any of the other provisions of the Mortgage or Note secured hereby within thirty (30) days after written notice from Mortgagee specifying such non-compliance. In the event of such default, at the option of the Mortgagee, all sums then owing by the Mortgagor to the Mortgagee shall become immediately due and payable, and this Mortgage may be foreclosed. Should any legal proceedings be instituted for the foreclosure of this
