The State of South Carolina.

By the Secretary of State.

WHEREAS, The City of Greenville, State of South Carolina, heretofore incorporated, is desirous of surrendering its charter, and accepting incorporation under the provisions of Article III., Chapter XLIX., Code of 1902, and amendements thereto.

AND WHEREAS, the City Council of the said City of Greenville has submitted the question to a vote of the qualified electors, and has certified the result of said election by which it appears that the vote was in favor of surrendering the charter and accepting incorporation under said Article III., Chapter XLIX., Code of 1902 and amendments thereto.

NOW THEREFORE, I, R.M. McCown, Secretary of State by virtue of the authority in me vested by the aforesaid Code and amendemnts thereto and all Acts or parts of Acts me hereto enabling do hereby certify that the City of Greenville, South Carolina, is duly incorporated with the privileges, powers and immunities, and subject to the limitations prescribed by law.

Given under my hand and the seal of the State, this the fourteenth day of February, A.D. 1907, and of the one hundred and thirty-first year of the Independence of the United States of America.
