

State of South Carolina, } Renunciation of Dower,
 County of Greenville, }

I, Henry A. Batson, a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid, do hereby certify unto all whom it may concern that Mrs. J. F. Bates the wife of James Bates, did this day appear before me, and upon being privately and separately examined by me, did declare that she does freely, voluntarily and without any compulsion, dread or fear of any persons or persons whomsoever, renounce, release and forever relinquish unto T. J. Newby and his heirs and assigns all her interest and estate and also all her right and claim of Dower of, in, or to all and singular the premises mentioned and described in a certain deed of conveyance executed by James Bates to Harriet Cox, bearing date the 9th. day of December, A. D. 1892, and recorded in the A. M. C. Office for said Greenville County and State aforesaid on the 27th. day of April, A. D. 1893, in Deed Book "A. A. A.", at Page 17; said deed conveying a certain tract of land in Bates Township, in said County and State, containing Six and One-half (6½) acres, more or less; this Renunciation being now made for the purpose of clearing the title to said tract for the benefit of the present owner, T. J. Newby.

Given under my hand and seal this 20th day of February A. D. 1924.
 Henry A. Batson (P. S.)
 Notary Public for South Carolina.

Mrs J. F. Bates.

Recorded April 7th. 1924.
