GEO. H. COREY,
Commissioner of Deeds for the State of South Carolina residing in the State of New York.

STATE OF NEW YORK } ss.:
COUNTY OF NEW YORK }

Be it remembered that on this 17 day of June, 1927, before me personally came Wm. P. Malburn, a Vice-President of American Exchange Irving Trust Company, a corporation of the State of New York, party to the foregoing indenture, to me personally known to be such, who being by me duly sworn, did depose and say: that he resides in Englewood, New Jersey; that he is a Vice-President of American Exchange Irving Trust Company, one of the corporations described in and which executed the above indenture; that he knows the seal of said corporation; that the seal affixed to said indenture is such corporate seal; that it was so affixed by order of the board of directors of said corporation; and that he signed his name thereto by like order; and the said Vice-President acknowledged the said indenture to be his act and deed and the act and deed of the said company; and that the signature of the said Vice-President is in his own handwriting.

Given under my hand and official seal the day and year aforesaid.
