

State of South Carolina
County of Greenville Agreement entered into this the 15th day of May, 1928 by and between Oliver L. Wood and Grace McBrayer Wood, his wife, both of the County and State of aforesaid.

Whereas, The above named parties have for several weeks last past lived separate and apart, and have mutually agreed upon a separation agreement, and each intend to live their lives as man and wife, and each hereafter have any right, title, claim, demand, or interest in the property of the other, or the estate of the other.

1. Oliver L. Wood the said husband hereof has paid to Wood the sum of $1700.00 (one thousand seven hundred dollars) which said sum is here by acknowledged to be in full payment of all claims past and present of Grace McBrayer Wood against Oliver L. Wood, and it is especially understood and agreed that from this day hereforth Grace McBrayer Wood shall have no right of dower in any of the property of her said husband, said right being hereby renounced and entirely extinguished by this agreement and the consent of the parties expressed.

And the said parties do each renounce, release and surrender all claims against the other, including rights in property, real and personal, and they do hereby covenant and agree that neither of them shall hereforth have any claim or interest in the property or estate of the other, and each do hereby renounce, release and relinquish all rights, claims and demands which he or she may now or hereafter have in the estate of the other, whether by reason of dower, courtesy, inheritance, or other wise, under or by virtue of the laws of South Carolina, or the laws of any other State of the United States or any foreign country.

2. The said parties intend to continue to live separate and apart, and neither shall have any right against the other, in the property of the other, by reason of the existence of the other.

Oliver L. Wood

I, JAMES W. WOOD, Clerk of said County, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of the original of the within and foregoing as the same appears from the records of said County.
