

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

This is to certify that, on petition of a majority of the officers and members of the Farmers Aid Society, praying for a charter, in pursuance of an act entitled, "An act to provide for granting of certain charters," approved the twentieth day of February A. D. 1874: Therefore, Know all men by these presents, that Spencer E. Colliers, Ansel Arnold, Robert Montgomery, Preston Moultrie, Jack Simpson, Lee Edwards and James Arter, and their associates and successors in office, be and they are hereby, declared to be a body politic and corporate under the name and style of the Farmers' Aid Society of the County of Greenville State of South Carolina, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any courts of this State, to have, use and keep a common seal and the same at will to alter to contract and be contracted with, buy, sell, acquire, hold and enjoy, so much real state as may be necessary for furnishing officers and for carrying on the business of the same, with power to lease, rent or convey the same subject to such rules and by laws of the Farmers' Aid Society; may also adopt such by laws and regulations as may be deemed proper, the same not repugnant to the laws of the land and shall have power to receive any gift, grant, contract, devise or other donation, either by will, subscription or otherwise, of real estate or personal property, and may sell the same, provided the amount received from such sale be reinvested in securities for the benefit of the Farmers' Aid Society.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the Court at Greenville, the 4th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty three and in the one hundredth and eighth year of the Independence of the United States of America.
