

Revocation of Power of Attorney
 State of South Carolina } Susan Vaughan to County of Greenville, } Agnes Burdette Johnson.

To All Whom These Presents May Concern:

Whereas, I have heretofore executed and delivered to Agnes Burdette Johnson a Power of Attorney under date May 24, 1928, and recorded May 26, 1928 in Deed Book 142 at page 508, wherein I authorized and empowered the said Agnes Burdette Johnson to ask, demand, sue for, recover and receive in my name and stead, from the Administrator of the estate of J. N. Gilreath all real estate, personal property, evidence of indebtedness, or money which I should be entitled to out of said estate, and to execute releases and acquittances against any accounts, agreements or compositions in or about my distributive share of said estate, and

Whereas, the said Agnes Burdette Johnson (now Mitchell) has not performed her duties under said Power of Attorney in a manner satisfactory to me, and I therefore, desire to revoke said Power of Attorney, now

Know All Men By These Presents That I, the said Susan Vaughan, do hereby cancel, revoke and declare the said Power of Attorney, and all provisions thereof, hereinabove referred to, executed by me in favor of Agnes Burdette Johnson (now Mitchell) null, void and of no effect whatsoever; and the said Agnes Burdette Johnson (now Mitchell) has neither now or at any time in the future any power, right or authority to act for me or in my stead in matters pertaining to my interest in the estate of J. N. Gilreath, be in any matter or on any account whatsoever, and is hereby discharged as my Attorney in Fact, and

Notice Is Hereby Given, That she has no power or authority to act for me or in my stead under said Power of Attorney, or in any manner whatsoever.

In Witness Whereof I hereunto

- Over -