County of Greenville.

Common Pleas Court.

Ex Parte.

W. I. Moore,
Petitioner,

ORDER.

In Re:

Wilson Graveyard.

Upon due consideration of the foregoing Petition, and upon motion of J. D.

Lanford, attorney for the Petitioner, it is Ordered that John Suttles, Henry Clark and Manly Mason be and they are hereby appointed as a Board of Trustees for Wilson Graveyard, as successors to George Farmer, James Cooley and John Burnett, with power to take charge of, possess and control over the said Wilson Graveyard as described in deed recorded in Vol. FFF, at Page 173, R.M.C. Office in and for Greenville County, and it is further Ordered, upon the death of any one of the said Trustees the survivors are authorized and directed to select a suitable person in the community and so on from time to time so that the board may be perpetuated without further order of this court, and the said board is authorized in every way to carry out the objects of the trust in keeping with the powers contained in the above mentioned deed. And it is so Ordered.

In Re:

Wilson Graveyard:

To The Honorable Court of Common Pleas:

Your Petitioner, W. I. Moore, would show to the Court by his Petition.

I.

That he is a resident of and has been for a number of years in the community north of Greer, and that relatives of his are buried in the Wilson Graveyard hereinafter mentioned.

II.

That on the 27th, day of March 1898, one James Wilson late of the County said State, dedicated by a deed one and one-half (1½) acres of land to be laid off of his tract of land about one mile north of Greer and to be known as Wilson Graveyard; that he appointed in said deed of conveyance three (3) trustees, as follows: George Farmer, James Cooley and John Burnett; that said Trustees took charge of said Graveyard, and the premises so conveyed have since been surveyed and laid out by notes and bounds, and has been occupied and used as a graveyard by the residents of the community since the date of execution of agreement to this date; that all of the said trustees are now dead, and the said trustees are now dead, and the said instrument did not provide for the appointment of successors to the trustees designated therein, so that it is now necessary that successors be appointed to look after and care for said graveyard and to exercise general supervisory powers therein; that your petitioner is advised that it is necessary that someone apply to this court for the designation of suitable persons to act as trustees for the community; that the deed of conveyance is recorded in Book FFF, at Page 173, in office of R. M. C. in and for Greenville County and to which reference is hereby craved.

III.

Your petitioner further alleges that he has been asked by residents of the community to make this application; that the matter has been discussed throughout the community and that the community has centered upon the following named residents of the community and that the petitioner has been asked to seek their appointment in this order to wit, John Suttles, Henry Clark and Manly Mason all of who are residents of the said community, are farmers and land owners of the community, and are in every way suitable for the trust. Your petitioner would further show that in order to avoid the necessity of
