

POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that we, Arthur E. Oeland and Ann Oeland, his wife, both of Pinedale, Sublette County, Wyoming, do hereby constitute, make and appoint Paul J. Oeland, of Greenville, South Carolina, our true and lawful attorney and/or agent in fact, for us and in our name.

- 1- To grant, bargain, and sell all lands in which we are, or may be, in any entitled or interested, and
- 2- To make, execute and deliver good and sufficient deeds therto, and
- 3- To receive payment therefore, and sign and deliver all necessary receipts for any and all moneys which may be due us.

The said Ann Oeland, wife of Arthur E. Oeland, expressly authorized the said Paul J. Oeland her agent and/or attorney in fact, to sign any and all papers necessary to renounce her wife's dower right in any and all property in which she may have an interest.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 20th day of October, 1938.
