The State of South Carolina,
COUNTY OF GREENVILLE.
Whereas, Landrum S. Boswell is the widower of Mary Cox Boswell, who died several years ago intestate leaving as her heirs at law and distributees her said widower and one chi	ild, Clyde Boswell, and,
Whereas, the said Clyde Boswell died August 17, 1940, leaving as his sole heirs at law his three sons: Everett Boswell, Sylvan Boswell and Ray Boswell, NOW, THEREFORE,
11.011.9

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That We, Landrum S. Boswell, Sylvan Boswell and Ray Boswell;
	-
	-
·	-
in the State aforesaid	_ in consideration of the sum ofOne & no/100 in consideration of the sum of	-
DOLLARS	;
	_
tothand-paid-at-and-before-the-scaling-of-these presents by noid har Ambham E. Com
paid by Archur E. Cox
*	_
	_
in the State aforesaid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and	4" release, unto the said Arthur E. Cox. All of our right, title and interest in and to
······································
······································
All that pions persol on let of load to Solude members of the state of	-
All_that_piece,_parcel_or_lot_of_land_in_Saluda_Township,_Greenville_County,_State_of	-
South_Carolina, originally_containing_226_acres, more_or_less, and being_more_particularly	-
South_Carolina, originally_containing_226_acres, more_or_less, and_being_more_particularlydescribed_in_deed_to_John_Cox_dated_February_17,_1877,_and_recorded_in_Deed_Book_II,_page_74,	-
South_Carolina, originally_containing_226_acres, more_or_less, and being_more_particularly
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby crayed for a more
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres,
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R.M.C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R.M.C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land.	uril.
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land.	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril.
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril.
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	uril
South Carolina, originally containing 226 acres, more or less, and being more particularly described in deed to John Cox dated February 17, 1877, and recorded in Deed Book II, page 74, R. M. C. Office for Greenville County. Reference to said deed is hereby craved for a more particular description. The grantee herein is already the owner of approximately 21 acres, designated as bottom land of said above tract, and this deed is given to convey all interest whatever which we may have in and to the remaining portion of said tract which consists prima of mountain land. Mary Cox Boswell above referred to was a sister of the grantee herein and was one of	ril