Whereas, H. O. Bayne died intestate in this County on October 28, 1941, leaving as his sole heirs at law, his widow, Tempy A. Bayne, and seven children hereinafter mentioned as grantors. There has been no administration upon the estate but it is the desire of the grantors and the grantee that the grantee shall have a life estate in the lands hereafter described and the granter shall have the fee in the entire lands including the interest of the grantee, subject only to a life estate in herself. And in conformity with this understanding and agreement the grantee is this day conveying unto the grantors, by another deed, her fee interest in these same lands.
