Power of Attorney.

We, Francis Tindal Mitchell, formerly Francis Boland Tindal, and William McDaniel Tindal, Jr., hereby nominate, constitute and appoint our mother Francis T. Tindal as our true and law agent and attorney in fact in all our business and legal matters, giving her authority to sign our names to any deed, mortgage or other legal paper which we ourselves could sign and execute. Regardless of what the matter is she has the same authority with reference thereto which we ourselves would have if we were present. In other words we desire that she shall represent us and act for us in any and all matters pertaining to our property and other legal rights. This power of attorney shall extend particularly to our rights in real estate located in Greenville County, and shall continue until revoked in writing by us or either of us.

Witness our hands and seals this July 18th 1944.
