

3. The said husband, in consideration of the aforesaid arrangement, agrees that so long as the separation continues, he will not in any manner molest or disturb his said wife or receive or claim any money or property not his own which she may become possessed of.

4. It is further understood and agreed that said party of the first part shall be relieved of any responsibility whatever for support of the party of the second part.

5. It is further covenanted and agreed, for and in consideration of the terms aforesaid, that Doris E. Bates, wife of the aforesaid Joe C. Bates, hereby renounces and releases unto the said Joe C. Bates, his heirs and assigns, all her right and claim of dower to any and all lands now or hereafter owned by the said Joe C. Bates and the said Doris E. Bates further agrees not to claim dower out of the lands that the said Joe C. Bates now or hereafter owns.

6. ~~The children of Joe C. Bates and Doris E. Bates, namely, Joe Carlton Bates, III, John Keith Bates, and Mary Elizabeth Bates, are hereby committed to the custody of Mrs. Auth M Bates, 9 Alta Vista Avenue, Greenville, South Carolina, for a temporary period of six (6) months. During this time, the aforesaid Joe C. Bates and Doris E. Bates shall each have permission to see said children at reasonable hours if they may desire.~~

7. And, it is finally agreed that in case an action for divorce shall be instituted by either of the parties hereto that neither will ask for alimony or for counsel fees and that neither will resist nor contest any divorce action commenced by either of the parties and both parties agree to join in the prayer for relief in any divorce proceeding, it being in contemplation of the party of the second part to institute a divorce proceeding as soon as it may be legally done.
