CONTRACT AND AGREEMENT

This contract and agreement made on this 16th day of November, 1948, by and between C. M. Hollingsworth, hereinafter referred to as party of the first part, and Myrtle Harris, hereinafter referred to as party of the second part, witnesseth:

WHEREAS the party of the first part and the party of the second part attempted to enter into an alleged marriage contract in the State of Washington, and at the time said attempted marriage contract was entered into, the party of the first part was married and was not in a position to make a binding contract, and whereas said marriage is null and void, and whereas the party of the second part claims to have a child by the party of the first part,

NOW, therefore, the parties hereto mutually agree that said marriage was and is null and void and each party hereto does hereby specifically and irrevocably release each other from any and all possible duties, liabilities and responsibilities, of whatever nature and kind, growing out of or arising from said attempted marriage.

It is agreed that the party of the first part has paid the party of the second part the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars in cash and does herewith pay the party of the second part the sum of two hundred ($200.00) dollars in addition in cash, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged by the party of the second part, in full and complete settlement of all duties, liabilities and responsibilities in any way growing out of and arising from said marriage, all actions, causes of action, claims or demands of any type or character whatsoever.

The party of the second part does hereby contract and agree and release and discharge the party of the first part from any duties, liabilities or responsibilities in any manner for the support or maintenance of the said child which is alleged to be a child of the party of the first part.

The party of the second part agrees to withdraw all actions started
