

overseer by virtue of the authority that gives he and if any state overseer is pastoring a church and the church is not satisfied with him, the church can call a meeting among themselves and suggest the matter over and if it is their desire to change the state overseer from being their pastor and if they feel like their state overseer wont resign and give to another pastor, then they shall call the general overseer for a business meeting then if the state overseer wont resign, then he shall be brought into charge and his state and his position of his state shall be taken away from him, if the church has any right of all in changing pastors. And if the general overseer can pastor any work and wants to pastor and the time to pastor any church he can pastor any group of people at any local church or the church at headquarters as he likes until all matters is settled. Then if any group want him as pastor he can pastor for them as he likes and if the general overseer see it best to get another minister to do the pastor work, then he can do so without any objections. The general overseer and the state overseer shall agree upon this for pastor for the church and this quorum have, and shall have power to receive property by purchase, gift, devise or bequest to sell the same and apply the proceeds toward the promotion of the objects for which it is created or to lay out property and apply the income and profit toward such objects. The general welfare of the society are not individual profit and the members are not stockholders in the local sense of the term and the dividends of the society shall be divided among the members, the general overseer and the state overseer. Its ministers may establish churches in any state or country. The board of directors shall keep a record of all their proceedings which shall be at all times subject to the inspection of the general overseer or any other officer and its ministers and members cannot waive its property into any other quorum or chart at any time to appoint such subordinate officers and agents in addition to the general overseer and secretary or treasurer as the business of the quorum may require to assist in the management of the office and fix the compensation of the officers to be paid by the society in payment of property bought by it. And for erecting buildings and improvements and for other purposes pertain to the objects of its creation and secure the repayment of the money thus borrowed by mortgage, pledge or deed of trust upon such property as may be owned by it and it may in like manner secure by mortgage, pledge or deed of trust any existing indebtedness which it may have lawfully contracted.
