

State of South Carolina,

Greenville County

WHEREAS, the legal name of "The Church of God over which A. J. Tomlinson was and M. A. Tomlinson is General Overseer" has been legally changed to "The Church of God of Prophecy"; and WHEREAS it is desirable that the public records of the title to property of the church be changed accordingly, NOW THEREFORE

Know all Men by these Presents, That We, E. A. McDonald and Roy Reeves, Trustees for the Church of God, over which A. J. Tomlinson was and M. A. Tomlinson is General Overseer

in the State aforesaid, in consideration of the sum of one dollar and recitals Dollars to us paid by E. A. McDonald and Roy Reeves, Trustees of The Church of God of Prophecy, in the State aforesaid, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, have granted, bargained, sold and released, and by these presents do grant, bargain, sell and release unto the said E. A. McDonald and Roy Reeves, Trustees of The Church of God of Prophecy, their successors in office and assigns forever:

All that piece, parcel or lot of land in Highland Township, Greenville County, State of South Carolina. :

BEGINNING at a stone on the Tugaloo Road at a stone, thence running west 105 feet front to a stone; thence North 210 feet to a stone; thence East 105 feet to a stone, thence South 210 feet to the beginning corner, containing one-half acre, more or less, this being a part of the R. L. Lendseys Estate.

PS)

Thence if said church fails to carry on worship at this place for any period of 12 full months, then the one-half acre returns to W. A. Hart and in such case the church building may be removed off of the land by The Trustees in office at said circumstances.

Being the same property conveyed to E. A. McDonald, C. C. Holmes and Roy Reeves, Trustees of the Church of God over which A. J. Tomlinson is and was General Overseer by deed recorded in Volume 242 at Page 26; C. C. Holmes has ceased to be a trustee, and E. A. McDonald and Roy Reeves are the duly qualified and acting trustees and this conveyance is executed pursuant to the following resolution:
