

- Page Three -

deposits or in lock box, the total amount of said sum being represented to be $3800.00.

(b) Bedroom suite of furniture located at 16 Mt. Vista Avenue, Greenville, South Carolina, freed of any claim of the husband.

(c) All personal property and effects not elsewhere referred to in this agreement now in her custody and control except the clothing and small items of personal property belonging to the children.

VI.

It is further mutually agreed as follows:

1. The husband is to have the sole custody, control and care of the three children named above at all times in the future, and it is agreed that he shall provide for their proper and necessary maintenance, support and education, and place them in a proper and wholesome environment in keeping with their station in life. That the children are to be kept free from influences or interference by third parties who shall prejudice them against either of the parties to this agreement. Provided, however, the wife shall have the right to and is to be permitted to visit said children at reasonable intervals, and the person or persons having the custody of the children shall reasonably cooperate in permitting the exercise of this right, but she is not to interfere in any way with the discipline or the rearing of said children by the person in whose custody the children are.

2. That the said wife has and does by these presents forever release and discharge the said husband from any and all claims of support of every nature and kind, and does hereby renounce any and all claims by way of dower in any property which the husband may now own or hereafter acquire, and does further agree to execute any instruments or renunciations of dower upon presentation to her at any time in the future.

3. It is further mutually agreed that as a part of the considera-