COUNTY OF GREENVILLE)

AFFIDAVIT

PERSONALLY appeared before me Walker Wright and Sumlar Hall, who upon being duly sworn, state that they have resided in the vicinity of Dime (Nichols) Street in Greenville, South Carolina, for many years; that they knew Daniel P. Boozer and of deponents' own knowledge recall that Daniel P. Boozer purchased the lots shown on the County Block Book on Sheet 201, Block 1, Lots 3 and 4 from Mamie Sprouse prior to the Spanish-American War. That Daniel P. Boozer resided on said lots for at least fifteen years and thereafter until his death rented the lots to Clifford Walker. That deponents are informed that Daniel P. Boozer did not record his deed, but it was well known in the vicinity that the said Daniel P. Boozer was the owner of said property.

Deponents further state that William Yancey Boozer and Cora B. Simpson, children of Daniel P. Boozer, predeceased their father and did not have children. Eula Boozer departed this life as a widower and without children some thirteen years ago leaving the following brothers and sisters as his sole heirs at law: Garnell Boozer, Janie McCullough Moore, Bernice Tolbert Wright and J. L. Boozer. Garnell Boozer subsequently departed this life without children, but leaving a widow, Mabel Boozer.
