

and agrees to live separate and a part from her and in no way to interfere with her social or business affairs in any way and does this day agree herewith to convey to her by deed all his right, title and interest in and to a certain lot of land now held jointly by him and the said Beatrice P. Clark, and to release any and all claims to household and kitchen furniture, excepting, however, one Silvertone Combination Radio, to pay over to her the sum of Twenty Five Hundred and No/100ths ($2500.00) Dollars.

(3) The permanent custody of the daughter of the parties, Sandra Ann Clark, is given to the said Beatrice P. Clark who assumes full responsibility for her support, moral correction, and training and the said J. Willard Clark does hereby agree and binds himself to pay to the said Beatrice P. Clark the amount of Ten and No/100ths ($10.00) Dollars at the end of each and every week hereafter for the board and maintenance of said child, and in addition thereto the said J. Willard Clark is to buy clothing, shoes and other personal items for said Sandra Ann Clark, from time to time as the need may arise, and further to provide all necessary dental, medical, hospitalization, and educational expenses in so far as it may be incurred from time to time, depending upon the age and her attendance upon schools, colleges, or otherwise, until she reaches the age of twenty-one years unless she should sooner marry.

It is further understood and agreed that J. Willard Clark shall have the right and privilege to visit the said Sandra Ann Clark, at her mother's home wherever she may reside, once a week, if so be desired by him, and to pay the said child such due attention as the circumstances may seem proper, to carry her out for entertainment, select clothing and other personal effects and to cultivate her affections as he may be prompted.
